Bindi learns about Anzac

Part 1

[‘ANZAC means Australian New Zealand Army Corps’ as Bindi found out at the last Joey meeting. Did you know that? Well there you go! Now we all know. So who knows what ANZAC day is? ‘It is the day that we remember all the Australian’s that have fought in a war for Australia. It is a very special day for many people because sometimes people died in wars.’ That was what Bindi was told by Wombat. Wombat asked the joeys ‘Has anyone seen wars medals.’ It was the first time Bindi had seen them so close he could touch them.’ I’ve brought my dad’s and granddads in so you can have a look. Most of the people who march are called Veterans.] Show medals to Joeys

Part 2

[As a joey’s scout Bindi found out that he could march on ANZAC day with his Joey Mob as part of his Scout Group. He was excited but Wombat said ‘There are some very important things you need to know when marching’. Bindi was surprised; Wombat said ‘First you must have your uniform on nice and clean, shoes polished. Then we need to march in straight lines and not run into anyone.’ Bindi didn’t realize that ANZAC was so important a day. He went on to say ‘Let’s practice our marching.’ Bindi couldn’t wait. Let us give it a go] March around in circles singing Grand Ole Duke of York

Part 3

[There have been many wars WWI, WWII, Vietnam, Korea, Iraq, and Bore and in all these many Australians showed great courage. One of these was Simpson and his donkey. He rescued many injured soldiers before he too was killed. Wombat said ‘time for a game’.] Rescue: two teams divided equally. 1st person runs down and rescues another Joey and bring back to safety. Rescued Joey then rescues the next Joey. This continues till all are rescued.

Part 4

[After the game Wombat sat the Joey down and said ‘Every year when we march we wear a small branch of Rosemary to remind us of the fallen – the men and women who have died in war’ He keep talking and Bindi was listening hard ‘To help us remember those who have fallen and were once a Scout, we will plant a Rosemary tree.’] Plant a rosemary tree in a nice pot or in the ground outside [Once Bindi had helped planted the tree Wombat called all the Joeys together and thanked them all. He said that they would all take turns watering the plant. Bindi was surprised when Wombat told Bindi it was his turn to water the plant next week. Bindi was so happy – he couldn’t wait to tell his mum and dad. They did closing parade and then Bindi’s mum turned up – he was bouncing up and down he was so excited about his job for next week he couldn’t keep still. He bounced over to his mum and told her his news. Wonder what happens next week?]
