Around Australia with BindiPart 1

Tree frog said as we entered the hall that night 'Does everyone have their bus pass?' Bindi wondered what that meant – he didn't have a bus pass and asked Tree frog why he needed one. She said he would soon find out and handed him a bus pass, she said 'don't lose it otherwise you won't be able to come'. Come where Bindi thought to himself. Once everyone was there, Tree frog called 'Joey's on parade. All the Joey's came running to the circle and stood on parade and waited.' Bindi noticed that Wombat wasn't there. He noticed that there were a group of chairs set up over the other side of the hall – he wondered what they were for. Tree frog did opening parade – Bindi was wondering what was going on. Next minute Bindi heard Wombat call 'All aboard, please present your bus pass when you board the bus we are going on a mystery tour.' All the Joey's got on the bus and Wombat stamped our pass as we got on. Joey's get on bus Next he sat in the driver's seat and started to drive the bus. Bindi didn't know where he was going. He was excited 'What is a mystery tour?' he asked Wombat. He replied 'It is a trip when you don't know where you are going.' Wow how exciting thought Bindi. 'Where are we going then?' asked Elin. Wombat said 'Ahhh well that is the surprise'. Here is our first stop called Wombat. Bindi looked out of the bus and he saw the Sydney Harbour Bridge. Wombat said 'We are going to draw the harbour bridge.' Give Joeys a piece of paper and get them to draw the harbour bridge

Part 2

Before we realized what was happening, Wombat called 'All aboard'. We were all surprised. Wombat called again 'All aboard for our next destination.' 'Where are we going now?' another Joey asked. Wombat replied 'That's still a surprise.' The Joeys were going along in the bus over the bumps and all when Tree frog said 'Here we are at our next stop!'. 'Who likes bananas? Here we are at the Big Banana – who has been here before?' asked Wombat 'we are going to have ice-cream and bananas.' Serve Joeys small amount of ice cream and bananas

Part 3

After we had our bananas Tree Frog said 'It's time we were leaving here and heading to our next destination.' So we all climbed aboard the bus and waited to see where we ended up next. Not to long after we stopped and Bindi wondered where was this place. Wombat said we were now at Kakadu National Park – it's a big place right up the top of Australia. Up here you can't go swimming – does anyone know why?' Give Joeys time to answer Well there are big crocodiles up here that like to eat meat and sometimes they mistake us for food. Ok Joeys we have been stuck in the bus for such a long time let's get out and have a game. Crocodiles crossing – sheet of paper per Joey, make two teams and they have to relay up the hall two at a time, using paper as rocks. Place one sheet on floor and step on it – place other sheet in front – both Joeys transfer to that sheet and pick up other sheet and then place it in front of sheet they are standing on. Then they step on that one and so on.

Part 4

'All aboard' was the yell from Wombat not long after we had finished the game. Bindi was all excited and couldn't wait for the next stop. It was a race to see who could get on the bus quickest. Bindi finally got on and sat down in his seat. When the bus started this time Wombat started singing 'The wheels on the bus go round and round.' Sing Wheels on the bus Ok everyone now be careful – its hot out here and we don't want any sun burn – who can guess where we are? We are at Ularu and we are going to make a model of the rock. This rock is sacred to the aboriginals. Using play dough or clay make a model of ularu.

Part 5

'Everyone on the bus.' said Wombat. 'Last stop coming up' said Tree frog. Bindi was wondering where they would be going this time, they had been to many places already and was unsure where else they could go. After a short while Wombat said 'We are here for our final stop'. 'Everyone of the bus please.' said Tree frog. Wombat said 'here we are in Adelaide – home of the Grand Pre – so we are going to go and have a go at some car racing. Joeys race each other in cars

Part 6

'Now that we have raced in Adelaide we had better head home otherwise we will all miss our lift home.' said Tree frog. 'All aboard' said Wombat. Bindi and the other Joeys climbed on board the bus for the last time. Bindi couldn't wait to get home to tell his mum where he had been. He was so excited. The bus was off and bumped and rolled home to where they had started from. He has had so much fun. Next Wombat called out 'Whoaaa" and the bus slid to a stop, he said 'Everyone off'. He called us over and asked us to sit down. He asked us did we enjoy our trip around Australia and what did the Joeys remember. Hand Joeys Log sheet and get them to draw a picture for their adventure challenge badge.
