

The Easter Bunny's Problem

It was getting near Easter and the Bunny had to start collecting the eggs. It takes a while you know to collect the eggs for every boy and girl. He had started early so that he didn't have to rush but when we got to the egg grounds he found something wrong. The eggs that normally lay thrown on the ground, were missing. In a panic the Easter bunny ran here, there every where, up trees and down burrows searching for the eggs but not a single one was to be found.

The Easter Bunny stood there trembling and close to tears. What am I to do he thought to himself while he looked around. Then he had an idea 'I know, I'll ask Bindi and his friend to help me find my missing eggs.' So he wrote a message to Bindi.

Hi Bindi,

I need your help. My eggs are all missing and I don't know where they are. Time is running out. Can you and your Joeys help me find them before it is too late?

I hope you can help me as I don't know who else could.

The Easter Bunny

Now as Bindi was very busy he passed this letter on to me. Do you think we could help Bindi by finding Easter Bunny's eggs? I think we can.

Now before we start we had better do some thinking. What do you think we will need for this special job? I think we need something to collect the eggs in. Where do you think we should look for these eggs? Someone was very sneaky and took bunny's eggs so they must have hid them very carefully. That means we are going to have to be very clever to find the eggs.

Is everyone ready? Do we have everything? Right now let's break into teams. We will meet back here in ten minutes to see how we are going? We will also check to see how many eggs we have so far. Easter Bunny didn't say how many were missing but I guess it was a lot. Oh that reminds we had better ask an adult to watch the egg basket so that no one takes the eggs we have found.

Right lets go.